Student Conduct:

School staff, parents, and students are all responsible for creating a culture of positive behavior. Discuss with your child the student conduct information below.

Parents and students must follow the school district's Stubullying.

ior, including any threatening, insulting, or dehumanizing gesture by an adult or student that is severe or pervasive enough to create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive educational environment, cause discomfort or humiliation, or unreasonably interfere with the individual's school performance or participation.

bullying occurs wherever there is the least structure and adult supervision. Most incidents tend to occur on the cyberspace, at bus stops, and in the school bus.

Tips for Parents:

- for positive communication and behavior.
- Provide/ensure adequate supervision.
- Teach your child to be assertive rather than aggressive or violent when confronted by a bully.
- Verify that consistent messages about rules and safety are practiced in your child's school and staff is trained in bullying prevention.
- Build a relationship with your child's teachers and administrators.
