Jmmy was honored for his bravery and courage during a very difficult situation. Jmmy's mother is battling cancer and while they were home one evening, Jmmy's mother had a seizure. Jmmy went to the nearest phone and called 911. Because of this phone call, Charlotte County Fire & EMS was able to respond to his home and render aid.

Mylah, Amelia, Madison, Gabriella, and Olivia were honored for starting an anti-bullying campaign. This group of students created a slide show to include facts about bullying and how to be an up-stander, created a video and game to accompany it, and made care bags which consisted of a pencil, eraser, stickers, and a note.
