

Please remember that as a Charlotte County Public Schools employee, your conduct is guided by the Florida Code of Ethics. This includes behavior which indicates that you value the acquisition of knowledge and are devoted to excellence. As a professional development participant, you are agreeing to maintain the highest level of ethical conduct and to adhere to the following principles:

All submitted assignments and assessments must be your original product and reflect your sole efforts.