Clarifications:

Teachers who encourage students to complete tasks with mathematical fluency:

- x Provide students with the flexibility to solve problems by selecting a procedure that allows them to solve efficiently and accurately.
- x Offer multiple opportunities for students to practice efficient and generalizable methods.
- x Provide opportunities for students to reflect on the method they used and determine if a more efficient method could have been used.

Engage in discussions that reflect on the mathematical thinking of self and others.

Mathematicians who engage in discussions that reflect on the mathematical thinking of self and others:

- x Communicate mathematical ideas, vocabulary and methods effectively.
- x Analyze the mathematical thinking of others.
- x Compare the efficiency of a method ~~how~~ expressed by others.
- x Recognize errors and suggest how to correctly solve the task.
- x Justify results by explaining methods and processes.
- x Construct possible arguments based on evidence.

Clarifications:

Teachers who encourage students to engage in ~~discussions~~ discussions that reflect on the mathematical thinking of self and others:

- x Establish a culture in which students ask questions of the teacher and their peers, and error is an opportunity for learning.
- x Create opportunities for students to discuss their thinking ~~in type~~ with peers.
- x Select, sequence and present student work to advance and deepen understanding of correct and increasingly efficient methods.

- x Check calculations when solving problems.
- x Verify possible solutions by explaining the methods used.
- x Evaluate results based on the given context.

Clarifications:

Teachers who encourage students to assess the reasonableness of solutions:

- x Have students estimate or predict solutions prior to solving.
- x Prompt students to continually ask, "Does this solution make sense? How do you know?"
- x Reinforce that students check their work as they progress and after a task.
- x Strengthen students' ability to verify solutions through justifications.
